Julie Navickas Wins First Place for the Book I'll Love You Tomorrow
at the BookFest® Awards Fall 2023

Bloomington, ILL—Julie Navickas is a first place recipient at The BookFest Awards Fall 2023 for the book titled I'll Love You Tomorrow. The book is honored in the contemporary romance category.

The BookFest honors authors who create outstanding works of fiction and nonfiction. The BookFest's dedication to honoring authors is rooted in a belief in the transformative power of literature and a desire to support and celebrate those who create it.

Desireé Duffy, Founder of The BookFest, says, "It is important to recognize authors for the role they play in creating and sharing stories that entertain, educate, and inspire readers. Books transport us to new worlds, broaden perspectives, and foster empathy. As the Founder of The BookFest, I believe that by saluting authors and their literary achievements we elevate the importance of literature in our society."

Navickas says, "Being selected as a winner of The BookFest Awards is an incredible honor—especially for a third time! I Loved You Yesterday and I Love You Today have both been first place recipients as well. I am grateful to be recognized for the hard work and dedication that went into all three titles. I hope this award will inspire others to pursue their own literary passions."

Desireé Duffy, Founder of The BookFest, says, "This year's competition was particularly fierce, and Navickas should be very proud of this achievement."
